

Bell South doesn't need to have controll over the small ISP's. The consumers need to have the option of a small ISP. I have had the big ISP and they do not have the personal service that the small ISP offers. Please rule againsg Bell South in this matter.